DECEMBER PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE - 2025

What a year this has been. Within a few weeks the year 2025 is DONE! How does time keep moving so fast is beyond me at times. Our heartfelt thanks to our sponsor PAUL MASSE for their continued support and generosity. We look forward to a growing, successful, spirited year in 2026. The job at hand is to STAY HEALTHY EVERYONE. As we get older it seems staying healthy is a FULL TIME JOB.

Thank you to those that attended our last meeting and our annual Christmas Party at Crystal Lake this weekend. The members that were absent were surely missed. The evening was full of remembrance, laughter, singing, dancing and amazing food. Everyone looked so festive, and I thank each and everyone of you for participating in my sing along to the 12 Days of Christmas (CORVETTE STYLE). I hope everyone had a great time. I truly enjoyed planning it.

It takes a village to run a successful organization, and I would not be where I am today, without the amazing volunteers that make this Club great. My Vice President, Dennis Langlois and I appreciate the support from our Board Members, Membership and everyone in between.

There is no meeting in January. I pray each and everyone of you, your friends and family get to enjoy a peaceful holiday season. Remember to reflect on your past with pride, experience and a teaching. Every page we turn in our book of life is a teaching. The rear-view mirror is smaller than the one in front of you, so keep planning, keep fighting, keep living and always be HUMBLE AND KIND. I will keep everyone informed of any pop-up events coming up in February. We are working on a breakfast in March and will keep everyone informed.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS, HAPPY NEW YEAR, GOD BLESS YOU ALL

YOUR HUMBLER PRESIDENT
LILIANA V. DOLAN

Detailing your Corvette

How concerned are you about your Corvette's looks? Is a trip to the drive-through car wash every few months good enough? Or do you obsess over things such as tiny swirl marks in your paint, or getting just the right amount of gloss on your trim? If you fall into the latter group, then you've come to the right place.

Celebrating 60 Years

Founded by a handful of Rhode Island Corvette Enthusiasts back in 1964, the Corvette Club of Rhode Island (CCRI) has endured for over five decades. The motivating factors for this enterprise have remained applicable to this day and are stipulated as "general purposes" in Article 2 of the club by-laws.

JUST THE TIPS S WITH RICK LYONS S

This month, I'd like to discuss A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE Z51 PACKAGE

The What's, When's and Why's of the Z51 Performance Handling Package. A good read whether you have it, want it, or have no idea what I'm talking about...

Since its 1984 introduction with the C4 Corvette, RPO Z51 has always denoted a more serious Corvette. It's a cut above the base car for sure, but these days, it doesn't get as much attention thanks to models like the Z06 and ZR1.

In just a few words, we'll do our best to tell you all about what has made the Z51 Corvette so special across four generations. While it's not a comprehensive guide, this will provide you with an overview of the basics of what the Z51 package includes for each generation.

The spiritual predecessor to the Z51 package was RPO FE7 — Gymkhana Suspension — offered on late C3 Corvettes. An FE7 car has stiffer shocks and springs, as well as larger sway bars.

C4 Corvette: 1984-1996

In 1984, the Z51 package included stiffer springs, larger sway bars, wider wheels, and a revised steering ratio. While standard wheels were 16×8.5" wide, Z51 cars were fitted with 16×9.5" wide rear wheels, and Goodyear Eagle VR50 tires all the way around. Almost every Z51 Corvette since would be equipped with stickier tires than the standard model. Starting in 1985, the wider 9.5" wheels would be fitted at all four corners.

Z51 cars received special Delco Bilstein shock absorbers, as well as an auxiliary "boost fan" on the radiator and an upgraded oil cooler. In 1984, the Z51 option cost $600, or roughly $1,500 today.

Customers complained about the rough ride of 1984 cars, so for 1985, GM softened them up across the line. This was accomplished by using a less aggressive spring rate coupled with thicker sway bars. This gave 1985-and-up cars better ride quality without sacrificing handling. In 1987, RPO Z52, the Sport Handling Package, offered many of the upgrades found in the Z51 with a smoother ride. It stuck around for 1988 but was no longer offered for the 1989 model year.

By the end of the C4's run, many of the Z51-specific upgrades, such as the faster steering, upgraded cooling, and 9.5" wide wheels, were standard on all Corvettes. At this point, the Z51 package just included the suspension upgrades — shocks, springs, and sway bars.

C5 and C6 Corvette: 1997-2013

When the C5 Corvette debuted in 1997, it carried the Z51 option over from the C4. As before, the Z51 package included a stiffer suspension and beefier sway bars. Automatic Z51s also received a steeper rear axle ratio, as well as a power steering cooler. At $350 — about $560 in today's money — RPO Z51 was a downright bargain for the performance enthusiast.

The Z51 remained an option through the C5's run and continued to be offered when the C6 debuted in 2005. The C6 Z51 package was much the same as the C5's, but this time, upgraded brakes were added to the equation.

Z51 owners were treated to larger-diameter, cross-drilled rotors. Those with a manual transmission were treated to a close-ratio transmission, while automatic cars got a more performance-oriented rear axle ratio as before. The package price jumped to $1,495 for the Z51, but buyers received a lot more equipment for their money.

By this point, a Corvette hierarchy was more or less established. The Z51 package slotted neatly between base cars and the Z06. In 2010, the Z51 package was replaced with the Corvette Grand Sport. However, RPO Z51 would return for the C7 generation in 2014.

C7 Corvette: 2014-2019

The seventh-generation Z51 package returned with a bang. Z51 cars wore staggered wheels — 19" up front, 20" in the rear — and the upgraded brakes were fed by cooling ducts.

The cooling system upgrades went further than ever. The close-ratio manual was fed by a cooler, as was the electronic limited-slip differential. The engine was lubricated by a dry sump system usually seen in racing cars. A dual-mode exhaust was added to the package in 2015.

Of course, suspension upgrades were numerous, too. Z51 cars also had the option of adding on Magnetic Ride Control active handling and Performance Traction Management. Indeed, this was the most comprehensive and ambitious Z51 package yet. Of course, all of this came at a cost — the Z51 package nearly doubled in price to $2,800 for 2014.

JUST THE TIPS WITH RICK LYONS

2020 C8 Corvette

The 2020 C8 Corvette debuted with the Z51 package as its sole high-performance option. The price took a big leap yet again, to $5,000. However, the list of included equipment grew to match.

C8 Z51s are, of course, fitted with an upgraded suspension. They also include Brembo brakes and Michelin Pilot Sport 4S tires.

The performance rear axle ratio has returned as well, along with an electronic limited-slip differential. Also included are the now-standard heavy-duty cooling upgrades. The C8 Z51 package also includes a performance exhaust, as well as unique front and rear spoilers.

If you would like to find out if your car is equipped with the Z51 option. You can check the tag in the glove box it will list the codes for your options.

I know many of you have valuable insights and suggestions as well. If you'd like to share your tips or ideas, please feel free to reach out!

Corvette insurance doesn't necessarily mean classic car insurance or antique car insurance. In fact, we insure new cars as well as our loved classics. Do you own a new Corvette that is driven rarely to car shows, club events, parades, or just for a nice trip to the coast? No problem, we can insure that! Below you will find several reasons we feel you'll like what we have to offer.

Broad Usage : The National Corvette Museum and NCM Insurance Agency love to see the cars driven. We highly encourage you to take your car out on a nice day and enjoy it.

Mileage Options: We have several mileage plans to meet your needs. Pick the best plan that fits your vehicle and save money, Plus, we offer rollover miles.

Agreed Value : We only write collector car insurance or Corvette insurance policies on an Agreed Value basis. Once we agree on a value for your vehicle, that's what you'll get in the event of a total loss. We will not depreciate or question the vehicle's value.

Claims : If you were to have a claim you can take your car to the repair shop of your choice. You know who will do the best job on your prized possession.

Lower Cost : Our collector car insurance or classic car insurance will often be cheaper than your standard auto insurance companies, Plus, with the Agreed Value coverage, you know you'll be fairly compensated.

One Liability Charge : With the NCM Insurance Agency, you will pay for liability coverage only one time, while most standard auto companies charge for each vehicle.

Spare Parts : We automatically include $2,000.00 for lost or stolen parts, plus we include $75.00 to cover towing cost. If you want additional towing coverage you can purchase our Expanded Towing coverage for $10.00.

Optional 9 – 5 : We offer "Nine to Five Driver" that allows you to drive your vehicle to work up to a couple times a week.

New Car? : Any new addition to your collection is covered for 30 days and up to $50, 000.00.

Trip Interruption Coverage : If your vehicle ever breaks down while you are on a trip more than 50 miles from home we will pay up to $600.00 for transportation, lodging and expenses.
